Interested applicants should submit a copy of their CV with their home address, as well as a personal statement of 500 words or less describing their interest and commitment to public health and their career goals.

Applications will be reviewed by the Executive Board of the Suffolk County Medical Society and awardees will be notified of their acceptance by May 15th. Awards will be distributed at the SCMS Annual Dinner on June 4, 2021.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: APRIL 1ST, 2021

PLEASE SUBMIT TO MBERLIN@SCMS-SAM.ORG

This year's award honors Bruce Berlin, MD who served as SCMS President 1990-1992 and 2017-2018. Dr. Berlin was a MSSNY Delegate 1988-2020, Clinical Instructor of Family Medicine at Stony Brook University 1984-2000 and held his private practice in Huntington, Long Island. A champion of public health and physician advocacy, Dr. Berlin was an advisor to many Suffolk County officials and continued to serve the medical community throughout his retirement.
